

ECUMENICAL THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE – MAURITIUS

Accredited by the Africa International University, Nairobi, Kenya.

Welcome to ONLINE courses of the first semester 2024-2025

ETC Mission: "To provide theological education for ministerial formation and transformative leadership by equipping the people of God in higher learning and critical thinking."

--ONLINE courses-[or hybrid]--

INTRO TO OLD TESTAMENT: Christian ministry is rooted in the knowledge of the Christian Scriptures. The course introduces students to the formation, content and theology of the Old Testament, with the view to equipping them for various ministries

Lecturer: Pastor Marc Etive
Mondays: 5pm -7pm

ART of PREACHING: A course designed to introduce students to the nature and purpose of preaching, help them acquire the skills necessary to create and deliver good sermons, using good exegetical techniques, with a clear focus and function statement, and employing an appropriate form.

Lecturer: Rev. Dr Rodney Curpanen
Tuesdays: 7pm -8.30pm

INTRO to COMMUNICATIONS: This course is designed for individuals who desire to acquire solid knowledge of how communication works, understand the concepts and theories, apply critical thinking and problem-solving for ethical decision-making

Lecturer: Mrs Lovena Jemima Sydney
Thursdays: 7pm – 9pm

Medium of instruction:
French, Kreol, English

Cost per subject: Rs 3,600.
Whole Certificate: Rs 32,000
(instalments possible)

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. School Certificate or Equivalent - or
2. Mature students with life skills and life experience will be considered by the Academic Board - or
3. Students recommended by their Church body

Submit your application with the recommendation of your church leaders

For application form please email: etcmsecretary@gmail.com - Principal: Rev. Dr JR Curpanen 5259 2777

In person lectures will be held at: Saint Andre church, Coignet, Rose Hill

Teaching and learning are context based. Methodology will be action-reflection while students and teachers are constantly exposed to learning by doing theology. Social and structural analysis will be part of the learning process.

The Ecumenical Theological College offers training and formation that is open to all Christian denominations.

Visit our website: <https://www.etcmr.com/>